

7th Annual Older Adult Symposium

5/2/2024 – 5/2/2024

Learning Objectives

- Broadly discuss the topic of older adult mental health and identify resources and initiatives available to practitioners and community-based organizations.
- Identify the key issues around mental health affecting today's older adults, such as grief and loss, trauma-informed care, and the intersection of mental health with the social determinants of health.
- Describe the role that they can play in amplifying community collaborations, lived experiences, and equity-focused solutions to improve older adult mental health.

Interprofessional Continuing Education - Rush Accreditation

Accreditation Statement:

In support of improving patient care, Rush University Medical Center is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Joint Providership Statement:

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of Rush University Medical Center and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). Rush University Medical Center is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation Statements

For Medicine:

Rush University Medical Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 5.50 *AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)*TM. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the learner to earn credit toward the CME of the American Board of Surgery's Continuous Certification program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit learner completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABS credit.

For Nursing:

Rush University Medical Center designates this knowledge-based live activity for a maximum of 5.50 nursing contact hour(s).

For Psychologists:

Rush University Medical Center designates this live activity for 5.50 CE credits in psychology.

For Dieticians:

This live activity has been approved by the Commission on Dietetic Registration for 5.50 CPEUs

For Social Work:

As a Jointly Accredited Organization, Rush University Medical Center is approved to offer social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) Approved continuing education (ACE) program. Organizations, not individual courses, are approved under this program. Regulatory boards are the final authority on courses accepted for continuing education credit. Social workers completing this course receive 5.50 general continuing education credits.

For physical therapy or occupational therapy:

Rush University Medical Center is an approved provider for physical therapy (216.000378) and occupational therapy (224.000220) by the Illinois Department of Professional Regulation.

Rush University Medical Center designates this live activity for 5.50 continuing education credits.

To claim Continuing Education Credit, attendees must:

- Attend the entire session;
- Evaluate and Generate a certificate according to the instructions.

Disclosure

Unapproved Uses of Drugs/Devices: In accordance with requirements of the FDA, the audience is advised that information presented in this continuing medical education activity may contain references to unlabeled or unapproved uses of drugs or devices. Please refer to the FDA approved package insert for each drug/device for full prescribing/utilization information.

It is the policy of Rush University Medical Center and the Office of Interprofessional Continuing Education to ensure that its CE activities are independent, free of commercial bias and beyond the control of persons or organizations with an economic interest in influencing the content of CE. All individuals in control of educational content must disclose all financial relationships with ineligible companies in the past 24 months. An ineligible company is an entity whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. All conflicts of interest, including potential ones, for individuals in control of educational content are mitigated prior to the planning, implementation, or evaluation of the continuing education activity.

The IPCE identifies the presence or absence of relevant financial relationships for all individuals in control of content including but not limited to planning committee members, course directors, invited presenters/authors, and staff through a standardized disclosure form. If a financial relationship is identified for the person in control of content, conflict mitigation strategies will be used to mitigate the financial relationship before they assume their role.

Individuals in control of content for this activity have the following relevant financial relationships to disclose and all financial relationships have been mitigated.

All individuals in control of content have no relevant financial disclosures.